Dear Friends of EMERGE,

Mailing Privacy Statement

Your action is required to confirm that you'd like to continue to stay in touch with us.

We know that you are as committed to sustainability as we are, which is why we would like to keep you up to date with all our news and events, but under new laws we will need your permission to do this.

On 25 May 2018 new EU legislation is coming into force which will protect the personal information about you that is held by others. This new law enables you to control what data is held and how it is used.

At EMERGE we have always been strongly committed to protecting the privacy of your personal data, and as such we have always had robust measures in place to keep your details secure and make sure that your privacy is respected at all times. This new law will ensure that this kind of good practice is legally enforced, and this involves getting clear formal consent from you with regard to how we contact you and how we hold your personal information.

Under the new rules, you must actively consent to being contacted by us, which means that if we don't hear from you by 25 May, we will be legally required to remove you from our mail-outs.

If you have any concerns as to how we process your personal data please email us at dataprotection@emergemanchester.co.uk.

Yours Faithfully,
